Rules of the special competition "The best breeder of the show" Banská Bystrica

1. To participate on the show should every exhibitor, from any FIFe national member organization, who is registered on the show, his cats are registered in the show catalogue and the exhibitor is participating personally on the show. If exhibitor, who fulfils required conditions, doesn't want to participate in this special competition, he must inform the organizers to 9.30 AM each day at the latest.

2. The exhibitor should participate on this special competition if:
    a. on the show are registered at least 3 cats which are bred in his cattery and have the name of this cattery (the recent owner of the cat is not important. The important is the breeder of the cat, thus cats must be from the same cattery)
    b. cats are registered in the show catalogue in some of the show classes (except class 15).
    c. even he doesn't own cats (fulfilling conditions a) and b) anymore, it means they must not be in his ownership. These cats should be registered by other exhibitor.

3. Each cat obtains special points (used only for this special competition) for the certificate she gets during judging. The winner of the special competition and the title "The Best Breeder of the Show Banská Bystrica" gets the exhibitor (cattery owner) with the highest points his cats obtain.

4. This special competition is separately organized each day – each day will be given separate title.
